Application of Act

2. (1) The provisions of this Act shall apply in respect of the legal duty of any person to maintain any other person, irrespective of the nature of the relationship between those persons giving rise to that duty.

10

(2) This Act shall not be interpreted so as to derogate from the law relating to the liability of persons to maintain other persons.

CHAPTER 2

MAINTENANCE COURTS AND COURT OFFICERS

Maintenance courts

3. Every magistrates court shall within its area of jurisdiction be a maintenance court for the purposes of this Act.

Maintenance officers

4. (1) (a) Any public prosecutor to whom a Director of Public Prosecutions has delegated the general power to institute and conduct prosecutions in criminal proceedings in a particular magistrate's court shall be deemed to have been appointed as a maintenance officer of the corresponding maintenance court.

(b) The National Director of Public Prosecutions shall, in consultation with the Minister, issue policy directions with a view to—

(i) establishing uniform norms and standards to be observed by public prosecutors in the performance of their functions as maintenance officers under this Act; and

(ii) building a more dedicated and experienced pool of trained and specialised maintenance officers.

(c) The Minister shall cause a copy of any policy directions issued in terms of paragraph

30

(b) to be tabled in Parliament as soon as possible after the issue thereof.

(2) Subject to the laws governing the public service, the Minister, or any officer of the Department of Justice authorised thereto in writing by the Minister, may appoint one or more persons as maintenance officers of a maintenance court—

(a) to appear in the maintenance court in proceedings under this Act; and

35

(b) to exercise or perform any power, duty or function conferred upon or assigned to maintenance officers by or under this Act.

Maintenance investigators

5. (1) The Minister, or any officer of the Department of Justice authorised thereto in writing by the Minister, may appoint in the prescribed manner and on the prescribed conditions one or more persons as maintenance investigators of a maintenance court to exercise or perform any power, duty or function conferred upon or assigned to maintenance investigators by or under this Act.

40

(2) The Minister shall take all reasonable steps within the available resources of the Department of Justice to achieve the progressive realisation of the appointment of at least one maintenance investigator for each maintenance court.

45

CHAPTER 3

MAINTENANCE ENQUIRIES

Complaints and Investigations

Complaints relating to maintenance

6. (1) Whenever a complaint to the effect— 5

(a) that any person legally liable to maintain any other person fails to maintain the latter person; or

(b) that good cause exists for the substitution or discharge of a maintenance order, has been made and is lodged with a maintenance officer in the prescribed manner, the maintenance officer shall investigate that complaint in the prescribed manner and as 10 provided in this Act.

(2) After investigating the complaint, the maintenance officer may institute an enquiry in the maintenance court within the area of jurisdiction in which the person to be maintained, or the person in whose care the person to be maintained is, resides with a view to enquiring into the provision of maintenance for the person so to be maintained. 15

Investigation of complaints

7. (1) In order to investigate any complaint relating to maintenance, a maintenance officer may—

(a) obtain statements under oath or affirmation from persons who maybe able to give relevant information concerning the subject of such complaint; 20

(b) gather information concerning—

(i) the identification or whereabouts of any person who is legally liable to maintain the person mentioned in such complaint or who is allegedly so liable;

(ii) the financial position of any person affected by such liability; or 25

(iii) any other matter which may be relevant concerning the subject of such complaint;

(c) request a maintenance officer of any other maintenance court to obtain, within the area of jurisdiction of the said maintenance officer, such information as may be relevant concerning the subject of such complaint; or 30

(d) require a maintenance investigator of the maintenance court concerned to perform such other functions as maybe necessary or expedient to achieve the objects of this Act.

(2) A maintenance investigator shall, subject to the directions and control of a maintenance officer— 35

(a) locate the whereabouts of persons—

(i) required to appear before a magistrate under section 8(1);

(ii) who are to be subpoenaed or who have been subpoenaed to appear at a maintenance enquiry;

(iii) who are to be subpoenaed or who have been subpoenaed to appear at a 40 criminal trial for the failure to comply with a maintenance order; or

(iv) accused of the failure to comply with a maintenance order;

(b) serve or execute the process of any maintenance court;

(c) serve subpoenas or summonses in respect of criminal proceedings instituted for the failure to comply with a maintenance order as if the maintenance 45 investigator had been duly appointed as a person who is authorised to serve subpoenas or summonses in criminal proceedings;

(d) take statements under oath or affirmation from persons who may be able to give relevant information concerning the subject of any complaint relating to maintenance; 50

(e) gather information concerning—

- (i) the identification or whereabouts of any person who is legally liable to maintain the person mentioned in such complaint or who is allegedly so liable;
- (ii) the financial position of any person affected by such liability; or
- (iii) any other matter which may be relevant concerning the subject of such complaint; or
- (f) gather such information as may be relevant concerning a request referred to in subsection (1)(c).

Examination of persons by maintenance officer

8. (1) A magistrate may, prior to or during a maintenance enquiry and at the request of a maintenance officer, require the appearance before the magistrate or before any other magistrate, for examination by the maintenance officer, of any person who is likely to give relevant information concerning—

- (a) the identification or the place of residence or employment of any person who is legally liable to maintain any other person or who is allegedly so liable; or
- (b) the financial position of any person affected by such liability.

(2)(a) The provisions of sections 162, 163, 164(1), 165, 179 to 181, 187, 191 and 204 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), shall, with the necessary changes, apply in respect of the examination of any person under this section.

(b) If the person who is required to appear before a magistrate furnishes the information in question to the satisfaction of the maintenance officer concerned in advance of the day on which he or she is required so to appear, the maintenance officer shall discharge him or her from the obligation so to appear.

(3) The examination of any person under this section may be conducted in private at a place designated by the magistrate.

The enquiry

Maintenance officer may cause witnesses to be subpoenaed

9. (1) (a) A maintenance officer who has instituted an enquiry in a maintenance court may cause any person, including any person legally liable to maintain any other person, to be subpoenaed—

- (i) to appear before the maintenance court and give evidence; or
- (ii) to produce any book, document or statement.

(b) A book, document or statement referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) includes—

- (i) any book, document or statement relating to the financial position of any person who is affected by the legal liability of a person to maintain any other person; and
- (ii) in the case where such person is in the service of an employer, a statement which gives full particulars of his or her earnings and which is signed by the employer.

(2)(a) Any person to be subpoenaed as a witness shall, subject to paragraph (b), be subpoenaed in the manner in which a person may be subpoenaed to appear before a magistrate's court in a criminal trial.

(b) The form of the subpoena shall be as prescribed.

(c) The provisions of section 181 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), are, subject to section 11(2), not applicable to any person against whom a maintenance order may be made under this Act.

Enquiry by maintenance court

10. (1) The maintenance court holding an enquiry may at any time during the enquiry cause any person to be subpoenaed as a witness or examine any person who is present at the enquiry, although he or she was not subpoenaed as a witness, and may recall and re-examine any person already examined.

(2) The maintenance court shall administer an oath to, or accept an affirmation from, any witness appearing before the maintenance court and record the evidence of that witness.

(3) Any party to proceedings under this Act shall have the right to be represented by a legal representative. 5

(4) No person whose presence is not necessary shall be present at the enquiry, except with the permission of the maintenance court.

(5) Save as is otherwise provided in this Act, the law of evidence, including the law relating to the competency, compellability, examination and cross-examination of witnesses, as applicable in respect of civil proceedings in a magistrate's court, shall 10 apply in respect of the enquiry.

Rights and privileges of witnesses

11. (1) Any person, other than a person against whom a maintenance order may be made under this Act, attending the enquiry as a witness shall be entitled to an allowance as if he or she were attending criminal proceedings as a witness for the State. 15

(2) The maintenance court may direct that any person against whom a maintenance order may be made under this Act—

(a) shall be paid the prescribed allowances for subsistence and for travel to and from the court; and

(b) shall be paid such allowance as may be paid to a witness for the accused in criminal proceedings. 20

(3) In connection with the giving of evidence or the production of any book, document or statement at the enquiry, the law relating to privilege, as applicable to a witness giving evidence or subpoenaed to produce a book, document or statement in criminal proceedings in a magistrate's court, shall apply. 25

Documental evidence

Proof of statements in writing by consent

12. (1) In the enquiry a statement in writing made in the prescribed manner by any person, other than a person against whom a maintenance order may be made under this Act, shall, subject to subsection (2), be admissible as evidence to the same extent as oral evidence to the same effect by the person concerned. 30

(2)(a) A copy of the statement, together with a copy of every document referred to in the statement as an exhibit, shall at least 14 days before the date on which the statement is to be submitted as evidence, be served on the person against whom a maintenance order may be made under this Act, and he or she may at least seven days before the commencement of the enquiry object to the statement being submitted as evidence under this section. 35

(b) If the person—

(i) objects in accordance with paragraph (a) to the statement being submitted as evidence, such statement shall not, subject to subparagraph (ii), be admissible as evidence under this section; or 40

(ii) does not object in accordance with paragraph (a) or come to an arrangement with the maintenance officer before or during the enquiry that the statement may be submitted as evidence, such statement may on its production at the enquiry be admitted as evidence in the enquiry. 45

(c) When the statement is served on the person, such statement shall be accompanied by the prescribed notification in writing.

(3) Any person against whom a maintenance order may be made under this Act may before or during the enquiry come to an arrangement with the maintenance officer that any statement referred to in subsection (1), notwithstanding the fact that it was not served on him or her in terms of subsection (2), be submitted as evidence, whereupon such statement may on its production at the enquiry be admitted as evidence in the enquiry. 50

(4) Any document referred to as an exhibit and identified in a statement in writing submitted as evidence under this section shall be treated as if it had been handed in as an exhibit and identified in the maintenance court by the person who made the statement. 55

Evidence and findings of fact recorded in respect of existing maintenance order

13. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the maintenance court holding an enquiry may take into consideration any evidence in any proceedings in respect of an existing maintenance order or accept as prima facie proof any finding of fact in any such proceedings. 5

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—

(a) the record of any evidence or finding of fact in any proceedings in respect of the existing maintenance order; or

(b) any copy or transcription thereof or extract therefrom certified as a true copy, transcription or extract by a person who purports to be the registrar or clerk of 10 the court or other officer having the custody of the records of the court in the Republic where the order in question was issued, shall on its production at the enquiry be admissible as evidence.

Proof of entries in accounting records and documentation of banks

14. The provisions of section 236 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 15 1977). shall, with the necessary changes, apply in respect of the enquiry.

CHAPTER 4

MAINTENANCE AND OTHER ORDERS

Duty of parents to support their children

15. (1) Without derogating from the law relating to the liability of persons to support 20 children who are unable to support themselves, a maintenance order for the maintenance of a child is directed at the enforcement of the common law duty of the child's parents to support that child. as the duty in question exists at the time of the issue of the maintenance order and is expected to continue.

(2) The duty extends to such support as a child reasonably requires for his or her 25 proper living and upbringing, and includes the provision of food, clothing, accommodation, medical care and education.

(3) (a) Without derogating from the law relating to the support of children, the maintenance court shall, in determining the amount to be paid as maintenance in respect 30 of a child, take into consideration—

(i) that the duty of supporting a child is an obligation which the parents have incurred jointly;

(ii) that the parents' respective shares of such obligation are apportioned between them according to their respective means; and

(iii) that the duty exists, irrespective of whether a child is born in or out of wedlock 35 or is born of a first or subsequent marriage.

(b) Any amount so determined shall be such amount as the maintenance court may consider fair in all the circumstances of the case.

(4) As from the commencement of this Act, no provision of any law to the effect that any obligation incurred by a parent in respect of a child of a first marriage shall have 40 priority over any obligation incurred by that parent in respect of any other child shall be of any force and effect.

Orders

Maintenance and ancillary orders

16. (1) After consideration of the evidence adduced at the enquiry, the maintenance 45 court may—

(a) in the case where no maintenance order is in force—

(i) make a maintenance order against any person proved to be legally liable to maintain any other person for the payment during such period and at 50 such times and to such person, officer, organisation or institution, or into 50

- such account at such financial institution, and in such manner, which manner may include that an arrangement be made with any financial institution for payment by way of any stop-order or similar facility at that financial institution, as may be specified in the order, of sums of money so specified, towards the maintenance of such other person, which order may include such order as the court may think fit relating to the payment of medical expenses in respect of such other person, including an order requiring such other person, if the said other person qualifies therefor, to be registered as a dependant of such person at a medical scheme of which such person is a member; 10
- (ii) make an order against such person, if such other person is a child, for the payment to the mother of the child, of such sum of money, together with any interest thereon, as that mother is in the opinion of the maintenance court entitled to recover from such person in respect of expenses incurred by the mother in connection with the birth of the child and of expenditure incurred by the mother in connection with the maintenance of the child from the date of the child's birth to the date of the enquiry; or 15
- (b) in the case where a maintenance order is in force—
- (i) make a maintenance order contemplated in paragraph (a)(i) in substitution of such maintenance order; or 20
- (ii) discharge such maintenance order; or
- (c) make no order.
- (2)(a) Any court—
- (i) that has at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, made a maintenance order under subsection (1)(a)(i) or (b)(i); 25
- (ii) that makes such a maintenance order; or
- (iii) that convicts any person of an offence referred to in section 31 (1), shall, subject to paragraph (b)(i), make an order directing any person who is obliged under any contract to pay any sums of money on a periodical basis to the person against whom the maintenance order in question has been or is made, to make on behalf of the latter person such periodical payments from moneys at present or in future owing or accruing to the latter person as may be required to be made in accordance with that maintenance order if that court is satisfied— 30
- (aa) in the case of subparagraph (i), after hearing such evidence, either in writing or orally, as that court may consider necessary; 35
- (bb) in the case of subparagraph (ii), after referring to the evidence adduced at the enquiry or the application for an order by default, as the case may be; or
- (cc) in the case of subparagraph (iii), after referring to the evidence adduced at the trial, 40
- that it is not impracticable in the circumstances of the case.
- (b) A court—
- (i) contemplated in paragraph (a)(i) shall only make an order referred to in paragraph (a) on application; and
- (ii) that convicts any person of an offence referred to in section 31 (1) shall make such order whether or not any penalty is imposed in respect of that offence or any order is made under section 40(1). 45
- (3)(a) In order to give effect to an order referred to in subsection (2), the maintenance officer shall, within seven days after the day on which such order was made or whenever it is afterwards required, in the prescribed manner cause a notice, together with a copy of such order, to be served on any person who is obliged under any contract to pay any sums of money on a periodical basis to the person against whom the maintenance order has been made directing the former person to make the payments specified in the notice at the times and in the manner so specified. 50
- (b) Whenever the person on whom the notice has been served, is for any reason discharged from the obligation of paying any such sums of money, he or she shall, within seven days after the day on which he or she is so discharged, give notice thereof in the prescribed manner to the maintenance officer of the court where the maintenance order in question was made. 55

(c) The person on whom the notice has been served shall give priority to the payments specified in that notice over any order of court requiring payments to be made from any other moneys due to the person against whom the maintenance order has been made.

(4) If any person against whom a maintenance order has been made under subsection (1)(a)(i) or (b)(i) changes his or her place of residence or employment during the 5 currency of the maintenance order, he or she shall, within seven days after the day of such change, give notice thereof in writing to the maintenance officer of the court where the maintenance order was made, and, if payment in terms of that order is to be made to any person, officer, organisation or institution, then also to the person, officer, organisation or institution to whom payment is to be made and shall state fully and 10 clearly where his or her new place of residence or employment is situated.

Orders by consent

17. (1) Any order referred to in section 16(1)(a) or (b) may be made against any person not present at the enquiry, if it is made in accordance with his or her consent in writing handed in by the maintenance officer at the enquiry. 15

(2) A copy of an order made against any person not present at the enquiry shall be delivered or tendered to him or her by any maintenance officer, police officer, sheriff or maintenance investigator, and the return of any such officer, sheriff or investigator showing that such copy was delivered or tendered to the particular person shall be deemed to be sufficient proof of the fact that he or she was aware of the terms of the order 20 in question.

Orders by default

18. (1) If a maintenance court is satisfied on the grounds of sufficient proof or otherwise—

(a) that any person against whom an order maybe made under section 16(1)(a) or 25 (b) has knowledge of a subpoena issued under section 9; and

(b) that he or she has failed to appear before the maintenance court on the date and at the time specified in such subpoena, the maintenance court may, on the application of the maintenance officer for an order by default. call upon the person who has lodged the complaint to adduce such evidence, 30 either in writing or orally, in support of his or her complaint as the maintenance court may consider necessary.

(2) After consideration of the evidence, the maintenance court may—

(a) make any order by default which the maintenance court could have made under section 16(1)(a) or (b); 35

(b) make such other order as the maintenance court may consider appropriate in the circumstances of the case; or

(c) make no order.

(3) A copy of an order made against any person not present at the enquiry shall be delivered or tendered. as soon as maybe practicable in the circumstances, to him or her 40 by any maintenance officer, police officer, sheriff or maintenance investigator, and the return of any such officer, sheriff or investigator showing that such copy was delivered or tendered to the particular person shall be deemed to be sufficient proof of the fact that he or she was aware of the terms of the order in question.

(4)(a) The person against whom a maintenance court has made an order by default 45 may apply to the maintenance court for the variation or setting aside of the order.

(b) The application shall be made in the prescribed manner within 20 days after the day on which the person became aware of the order by default or within such further period as the maintenance court may, on good cause shown, allow.

(c) Any person who wishes to make an application under paragraph (a) shall give 50 notice of his or her intention to make the application to the person who lodged the complaint, which notice shall be served at least 14 days before the day on which the application is to be heard.

(d) The maintenance court may call upon—

- (i) the person who has made the application to adduce such evidence, either in writing or orally, in support of his or her application as the maintenance court may consider necessary; or
 - (ii) the person who has lodged the complaint to adduce such evidence, either in writing or orally, in rebuttal of the application as the maintenance court may consider necessary.
- (5) After consideration of the evidence, the maintenance court may—
- (a) make an order confirming the order by default referred to in subsection (2)(a);
 - (b) vary such order by default, if it appears to the maintenance court that good cause exists for such variation; or
 - (c) set aside such order by default, if it appears to the maintenance court that good cause exists for such setting aside, and convert the proceedings into a maintenance enquiry.
- (6) (a) Any person in whose favour an order by default has been made may consent in writing to the variation or setting aside of the order.
- (b) The consent in writing shall be handed in at the hearing of the application for the variation or setting aside of the order by default.

Variation or setting aside of certain orders

19. A maintenance court that has made an order under section 16(1)(a)(i) or (b)(i) may, at the request of the maintenance officer—
- (a) vary such order by designating as the person, officer, organisation, institution or account to whom, to which or into which payment is to be made, any other person, officer, organisation, institution or account at a financial institution or by determining any other manner in which payment is to be made; or
 - (b) if the maintenance court has made an order referred to in section 16(2), set aside that order,
- and the maintenance officer shall, in the prescribed manner, inform the person required to pay, the person in whose favour the maintenance order has been made or the person on whom a notice referred to in section 16(3)(a) has been served, as the case may be, of any variation or setting aside of the order in question.

Orders as to costs of service

20. The maintenance court holding an enquiry may, having regard to the conduct of the persons involved in the enquiry so far as it may be relevant, make such order as the maintenance court may consider just relating to the costs of the service of process.

Orders relating to scientific tests regarding paternity

21. (1) If the maintenance officer is of the opinion—
- (a) that the paternity of any child is in dispute;
 - (b) that the mother of such child as well as the person who is allegedly the father of such child are prepared to submit themselves as well as such child, if the mother has parental authority over the said child, to the taking of blood samples in order to carry out scientific tests regarding the paternity of that child; and
 - (c) that such mother or such person or both such mother and such person are unable to pay the costs involved in the carrying out of such scientific tests,
- the maintenance officer may at any time during the enquiry in question, but before the maintenance court reties any order under section 16, request the maintenance court to hold an enquiry referred to in subsection (2).
- (2) If the maintenance officer so requests, the maintenance court may in a summary manner enquire into—
- (a) the means of the mother of the child as well as the person who is allegedly the father of the child; and
 - (b) the other circumstances which should in the opinion of the maintenance court be taken into consideration.

(3) At the conclusion of the enquiry referred to in subsection (2), the maintenance court may—

- (a) make such provisional order as the maintenance court may think fit relating to the payment of the costs involved in the carrying out of the scientific tests in question, including a provisional order directing the State to pay the whole or any part of such costs: or
- (b) make no order.

(4) When the maintenance court subsequently makes any order under section 16, the maintenance court may—

- (a) make an order confirming the provisional order referred to in subsection (3)(a); or
- (b) set aside such provisional order or substitute therefor any order which the maintenance court may consider just relating to the payment of the costs involved in the carrying out of the scientific tests in question,

Administrative provisions

Notice of substitution or discharge of maintenance orders

22. Whenever a maintenance court—

- (a) makes an order under section 16(1)(b) in substitution of a maintenance order; or

- (b) discharges a maintenance order under section 16(1)(b),

the maintenance order shall cease to be of force and effect, and the maintenance officer shall forthwith give notice of the decision to the registrar or clerk of the court in the Republic where the maintenance order was issued or where the sentence concerned was imposed, as the case may be, who shall deal with the relevant records or registers in the prescribed manner.

Transfer of maintenance orders

23. (1) Subject to the directions prescribed in connection with the transfer of maintenance orders, the maintenance officer may, in writing, direct the clerk of the court where a maintenance order was made to transmit the maintenance order, together with the prescribed records, to the clerk of the maintenance court within the area of jurisdiction of which the person in whose favour the maintenance order was made, or the person in whose care that person is, resides.

(2) On receipt of the maintenance order, the clerk of the maintenance court shall register such maintenance order in the prescribed manner.

(3) Any maintenance order registered in terms of subsection (2) shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a maintenance order made under section 16 by the maintenance court where the order has been so registered,

Effect of orders, and appeals

Effect of orders of maintenance court

24. (1) Save as is otherwise provided in this Act, any order or direction made by a maintenance court under this Act shall have the effect of an order or direction of the said court made in a civil action.

(2) Any order made under section 16(1)(a)(ii), 20 or 21(4) shall have the effect of a civil judgment of the maintenance court concerned and shall be executed as provided in Chapter 5.

Appeals against orders

25. (1) Any person aggrieved by any order made by a maintenance court under this Act may, within such period and in such manner as may be prescribed, appeal against such order to the High Court having jurisdiction.

(2) On appeal, the High Court or the Supreme Court of Appeal, as the case may be, may make such order in the matter as it may think fit.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, an appeal under this section shall not suspend the payment of maintenance in accordance with the maintenance order in question, unless the appeal is noted against a finding that the appellant is legally liable to maintain the person in whose favour the order was made.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (1) "order"—

- (a) does not include any order by consent referred to in section 17(1), any provisional order referred to in section 21 (3)(a) or any order by default referred to in section 18(2)(a);
- (b) includes any discharge of such order as well as any confirmation, setting aside, substitution or variation of such provisional order or such order by default;
- (c) includes any refusal to make such order as well as any refusal—
 - (i) to make such provisional order;
 - (ii) to make such order by default; or
 - (iii) to make any provisional maintenance order under section 16 by virtue of the provisions of any other law.

CHAPTER 5

CIVIL EXECUTION

Enforcement of maintenance or other orders

26. (1) Whenever any person—

- (a) against whom any maintenance order has been made under this Act has failed to make any particular payment in accordance with that maintenance order; or
- (b) against whom any order for the payment of a specified sum of money has been made under section 16(1)(a)(ii), 20 or 21 (4) has failed to make such a payment, such order shall be enforceable in respect of any amount which that person has so failed to pay, together with any interest thereon—

- (i) by execution against property as contemplated in section 27;
- (ii) by the attachment of emoluments as contemplated in section 28; or
- (iii) by the attachment of any debt as contemplated in section 30.

(2) (a) If any maintenance order made under this Act or any order made under section 16(1)(a)(ii), 20 or 21(4) has remained unsatisfied for a period of ten days from the day on which the relevant amount became payable or any such order was made, as the case may be, the person in whose favour any such order was made may apply to the maintenance court where any such order was made—

- (i) for the authorisation of the issue of a warrant of execution referred to in section 27(1);
- (ii) for an order for the attachment of emoluments referred to in section 28(1); or
- (iii) for an order for the attachment of any debt referred to in section 30(1).

(b) The application shall be made in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by—

- (i) a copy of the maintenance or other order in question; and
- (ii) a statement under oath or affirmation setting forth the amount which the person against whom such order was made has failed to pay.

(3) A maintenance court shall not authorise the issue of a warrant of execution or make any order for the attachment of emoluments or any debt in order to satisfy a maintenance order—

- (a) if the payment of maintenance in accordance with that maintenance order has been suspended by an appeal against the order under section 25; or
- (b) if that maintenance court has made an order referred to in section 16(2).

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, any pension, annuity, gratuity or compassionate allowance or other similar benefit shall be liable to be attached or subjected to execution under any warrant of execution or any order issued or made under this Chapter in order to satisfy a maintenance order.

Warrants of execution

27. (1) The maintenance court may, on the application of a person referred to in section 26(2)(u), authorise the issue of a warrant of execution against the movable property of the person against whom the maintenance or other order in question was made and, if the movable property is insufficient to satisfy such order, then against the immovable property of the latter person to the amount necessary to cover the amount which the latter person has failed to pay, together with any interest thereon, as well as the costs of the execution.

(2)(a) A warrant of execution authorised under this section shall be— 5

(i) prepared in the prescribed manner by the person in whose favour the maintenance or other order in question was made;

(ii) issued in the prescribed manner by the clerk of the maintenance court; and

(iii) executed in the prescribed manner by the sheriff or maintenance investigator.

(b) The person in whose favour the maintenance or other order in question was made 10 shall be assisted by the maintenance investigator or, in the absence of a maintenance investigator, by the maintenance officer in taking the prescribed steps to facilitate the execution of the warrant,

(3) A maintenance court may, on application in the prescribed manner by a person 15 against whom a warrant of execution has been issued under this section, set aside the warrant of execution if the maintenance court is satisfied that he or she has complied with the maintenance or other order in question,

(4) A maintenance court may, on application in the prescribed manner by a person 20 against whom a warrant of execution has been issued under this section—

(a) in summary manner enquire into the circumstances mentioned in subsection 20 (5); and

(b) if the maintenance court so decides, suspend the warrant of execution and make an order—

(i) for the attachment of emoluments referred to in section 28(1); or

(ii) for the attachment of any debt referred to in section 30(1). 25

(5) At the enquiry the maintenance court shall take into consideration—

(a) the existing and prospective means of [the person against whom the warrant of execution has been issued;

(b) the financial needs and obligations of, or in respect of, the person maintained 30 by the person against whom the warrant of execution has been issued;

(c) the conduct of the person against whom the warrant of execution has been issued in so far as it may be relevant concerning his or her failure to satisfy the maintenance or other order in question; and

(d) the other circumstances which should, in the opinion of the court, be taken 35 into consideration.

(6)(a) Any person who wishes to make an application under subsection (3) or (4) shall give notice in the prescribed manner of his or her intention to make the application to the person in whose favour the maintenance or other order in question was made, which notice shall be served at least 14 days before the day on which the application is to be heard. 40

(b) The maintenance court may call upon—

(i) the person who has made the application to adduce such evidence, either in writing or orally, in support of his or her application as the maintenance court may consider necessary; or

(ii) the person in whose favour the maintenance or other order in question was 45 made to adduce such evidence, either in writing or orally, in rebuttal of the application as the maintenance court may consider necessary.

Attachment of emoluments

28. (1) A maintenance court may—

(a) on the application of a person referred in section 26(2)(a); or 50

(b) when such court suspends the warrant of execution under section 27(4)(b), make an order for the attachment of any emoluments at present or in future owing or accruing to the person against whom the maintenance or other order in question was made to the amount necessary to cover the amount which the latter person has failed to pay, together with any interest thereon, as well as the costs of the attachment or 55 execution, which order shall authorise any employer of the latter person to make on behalf of the latter person such payments as may be specified in the order from the emoluments of the latter person until such amount, interest and costs have been paid in full.

(2)(a) An order under this section may at any time, on good cause shown, be suspended, amended or rescinded by the maintenance court.

(b) Any person who wishes to make an application for the suspension, amendment or rescission of an order under this section shall give notice in the prescribed manner of his or her intention to make the application to the person in whose favour that order was made, which notice shall be served at least 14 days before the day on which the application is to be heard. 5

(c) The maintenance court may call upon—

(i) the person who has made the application to adduce such evidence, either in writing or orally, in support of his or her application as the maintenance court may consider necessary; or 10

(ii) the person in whose favour an order under this section was made to adduce such evidence, either in writing or orally, in rebuttal of the application as the maintenance court may consider necessary.

Notice relating to attachment of emoluments 15

29. (1) In order to give effect to an order for the attachment of emoluments referred to in section 28(1), the maintenance officer shall, within seven days after the day on which such order was made by the maintenance court or whenever it is afterwards required, in the prescribed manner cause a notice, together with a copy of such order, to be served on the employer concerned directing that employer to make the payments specified in the notice at the times and in the manner so specified. 20

(2) Whenever any person to whom the notice relates leaves the service of the employer, that employer shall, within seven days after the day on which he or she leaves the service, give notice thereof in the prescribed manner to the maintenance officer of the court where the order in question was made. 25

(3) Any employer on whom a notice has been served for the purposes of satisfying a maintenance order shall give priority to the payments specified in that notice over any order of court requiring payments to be made from the emoluments due to the person against whom that maintenance order was made.

(4) If any employer on whom a notice has been served for the purposes of satisfying a maintenance order has failed to make any particular payment in accordance with that notice, that maintenance order may be enforced against that employer in respect of any amount which that employer has so failed to pay, and the provisions of this Chapter shall, with the necessary changes, apply in respect of that employer, subject to that employer's right or the right of the person against whom that maintenance order was made to dispute the validity of the order for the attachment of emoluments referred to in section 28(1). 30 35

Attachment of debts

30. (1) A maintenance court may—

(a) on the application of a person referred to in section 26(2)(a); or 40

(b) when such court suspends the warrant of execution under section 27(4)(b),

make an order for the attachment of any debt at present or in future owing or accruing to the person against whom the maintenance or other order in question was made to the amount necessary to cover the amount which the latter person has failed to pay, together with any interest thereon, as well as the costs of the attachment or execution, which order shall direct the person who has incurred the obligation to pay the debt to make such payment as maybe specified in that order within the time and in the manner so specified. 45

(2)(a) An order under this section may at any time, on good cause shown, be suspended, amended or rescinded by the maintenance court.

(b) Any person who wishes to make an application for the suspension, amendment or rescission of an order under this section shall give notice of his or her intention to make the application to the person in whose favour that order was made, which notice shall be served at least 14 days before the day on which the application is to be heard. 50

(c) The maintenance court may call upon—

- (i) the person who has made the application to adduce such evidence. either in writing or orally. in support of his or her application as the maintenance court may consider necessary; or
- (ii) the person in whose favour an order under this section was made to adduce such evidence. either in writing or orally. in rebuttal of the application as the maintenance court may consider necessary.
- (3) An order made under subsection(1) maybe enforced as if it were a civil judgment of the court.
