

Business world

September 29, 2014

BW | BUSINESSWORLD

Google™ Custom Search

Sea

HOME

ECONOMY

B-SCHOOL

BUSINESS

FINANCE

OPINION

PROFILES

SCIENCE & TECH

AFTER HO

WEB EXCLUSIVES

MORE

Home > News > Gadgets

IPE Global Acquires Triple Line Consulting Limited

IPE Global, an Indian origin group with focus on international development sector, has acquired a UK based international development-consulting firm, Triple Line Consulting Limited. The acquisition will expand the group's footprint in the development sector to over 100 countries globally with offices across Africa, Asia and Europe.

Triple Line, established in 1999, provides valuable technical expertise to improve life in poor and developing countries. Triple Line's diverse, international staff and strong network of consultants are experts in monitoring and evaluation, grant management, private sector development, governance, social development, gender and inclusion. Triple Line works with clients such as DFID, the European Commission, the World Bank, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, EURASIA Foundation, Comic Relief, SIDA, AusAID (DFAT), Korean Development Agency, NGOs such as VSO and FERN as well as some private clients. Triple Line is headquartered in London and has implemented over 350 projects in over 70.